

The Many Roads to London: How the Polish Veterans Made It Here

A Terrific Tales Lecture with Stan Skrzyszewski

Date: March 18, 2026

Time: 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Location: Stevenson & Hunt Room, Central Library, London Public Library, London

After the Second World War, more than 400 veterans of the Polish Armed Forces arrived in London, Ontario — men who had crossed continents, survived imprisonment, exile, and war.

But how did they get here?

What paths carried them from war-torn Europe to a new life in Canada?

Join us for an evening of public history as Stan Skrzyszewski traces the remarkable journeys of these soldiers — including the personal story of his own father. Through resilience and determination, their experiences became part of the fabric of London and Middlesex.

Presented as part of the Terrific Tales lecture series at the London Public Library, in partnership with the London and Middlesex Historical Society, this event shines a light on a lesser-known chapter of our community's heritage.
